WHEREAS, Detective Rebecca Tillett, City of Palm Bay Police Officer, Brevard County, Florida, has this day made complaint under oath before me, Judge of the Circuit/County Court, in and for Brevard County, Florida, stating that affiant has reason to believe, and does believe that a residence, located in Brevard County, at 103 Americana Blvd. NW, Palm Bay, Florida 32907, and particularly described and can be located as follows

To get to the property from the Palm Bay Police Department (PYPD) located at 130 Malabar Rd SE, one would travel west on Malabar Rd NE approximately 0.2 miles. One would then arrive at the intersection of Malabar Rd and Minton Rd and travel approximately 0.8 miles north on Minton Rd. One would then turn west onto Americana Blvd NW. The single family residence will be located on the right in approximately 135 feet. The residence to be searched is brick and peach in color. The roof is metal and light in color. The residence is a single story dwelling and has a light colored garage door. Two lights are located on the sides of the garage. The numbers 103 are white in color on a black background, located to the left of the front door.

The residence to be searched is owned by Pastor Family Trust
The residence to be searched is in control by Margaret Louise Pastor DOB 01/21/1924
Andrew John Pastor DOB 09/16/1946

The affidavit for the search warrant, by the affiant, Detective Rebecca Tillett, sets forth the facts, which establish probable cause for the affiant to believe that there are now on, in, at, or within the above-described residence items related to attempted murder of a law enforcement officer that occurred at 103 Americana Blvd NW, Palm Bay Brevard County, Florida, to wit:

- 1 Shell casings
- 2 Revolver
- 3 Projectiles
- 4 Blood and DNA evidence

Which are evidence of a felony violation of the laws of the State of Florida, to wit:

Attempted Murder of a LEO, contrary to sections 777.04, 782.065, Florida Statutes

Palm Bay Police Department / 17-001658

Search Warrant

1 of 2

THE COURT has interviewed the affiant, and it appears that he is a responsible and reputable person citizen of Brevard County Florida, and employed as a law enforcement officer as set forth above. The court has considered the affidavit and is satisfied as to the existence of the facts as set forth therein, and finds that said facts do establish and constitute probable cause for the issuance of a search warrant for the above-described vehicle for the evidence herein described.

NOW THEREFORE, you or either of you, with such lawful assistance as may be necessary, are hereby commanded in the name of the State of Florida, in the daytime/nighttime or on any Sunday, as the exigencies of the situation may require, to enter and search said residence described above herein specified, which is reasonably believed to be associated with the properties and activities described above, for the evidence described in this warrant, and if the same or any part thereof be found, then you are authorized and commanded to seize, secure, and examine the same and to arrest any person violating the law in connection therewith.

YOU ARE FURTHER COMMANDED to make up, at the time and place of seizure, a full and true list or inventory of all things seized, in duplicate, and signed by you or the processing crime scene technician. You shall deliver one duplicate copy of said inventory and a duplicate copy of this warrant to the person in charge of said vehicle or in the absence of such person, to leave said duplicate in said vehicle.

YOU ARE FURTHER COMMANDED forthwith, to bring all property seized and any person arrested before the court having proper jurisdiction to be dealt with in accordance with the law, and to make return of said warrant, with the copy of the inventory duly attached thereto to said court, properly verified by affidavit, according to law within ten (10) days of the date of this warrant.

Ordered this 15 day of February, 2017

David E. Silverman

Judge of the Circuit/County Court, in and for Brevard County Florida
